

Cutting Edge AND Cost Effective!

The Right Kitchen and Bath Expert Will Provide Maximum Results with Minimal Stress to You—and Your Wallet

YOU WOULDN'T CALL the dentist for an appendectomy. So why consult a firm without Certified Kitchen and Bath Remodeler (CKBR) credentials to create your personalized, totally custom, kitchen and bathrooms? A true kitchen and bath specialist will streamline your process, facilitating a stress free renovation and guaranteeing an end result that is precisely what you—and your wallet—envisioned.

Whether you're in the market for a minor facelift or embarking on a major overhaul, before cabinets and countertops there will be in-depth conversation. After gaining insight into your lifestyle and obtaining pertinent information--like how long you plan to stay in your home--your design/build renovation expert will assess your space and devise a design strategy that achieves your goals both aesthetically and fiscally.

If it's your kitchen that has become yesterday's news, your specialist will supply an endless list of 21st century options to infuse the space with a fresh, hip appeal. Elements like artistic hardware, the latest in door designs, architectural wood flooring, and granite with a unique sandblasted finish, will add customized pizzazz. Dazzling details like hand built backsplashes and eclectic light fixtures can weave in colors that reflect the décor in adjacent rooms. And that's only page one of the kitchen expert's recipe book.

If you're an empty nester who has paid that final college tuition bill, congratulations-- you just got a raise! It's the perfect time to reinvent that builder basic master bath. Consider trading its obsolete giant tub for a spacious, state-of-art spa shower. Add cabinets artfully mounted to "float," radiant heated floors, or river stones that bring the outdoors in and as you bask in the five star luxury and tranquility of your personal oasis, you may miss those kids a little less. Okay, a lot less.

Specializing in all manner of kitchen and bathroom renovations for three decades, Home Tech Renovations Inc., a Certified Kitchen and Bath Remodeler, has a sterling reputation for innovative designs, excellent craftsmanship and outstanding customer service. For more information call (215) 646-7477 or check out their website at www.HTRRenovations.com.

